HEIGHTS IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION'S ANNUAL MEETING NEXT MONDAY

The first annual meeting of the Arlington Heights Improvement Association, which is to be held in the Brackett School Hall on Eastern ave., next Monday evening at 8 p.m. will be one of the finest meetings of its type ever held in Arlington.

Not only will there be a short regular meeting, with the election of directors, and reports of various officers and committees, but an evening of diversified entertainment has been arranged for the members, their wives and their friends.

The business meeting will start promptly at eight o'clock and all are requested to be on time. This session will be of short duration and then the evening's fun begins.

Joseph Barry aided by Larry Jenkins and Alice Marie Barry will entertain with old and new songs. They are performers over WBZ and WCOP and Alice is a fine concert pianist. This summer, at Stearns Hall, she won the National Gold Certificate in a nation wide concert.

There will be a surprisingly new type of "Hill-Billy" band present and Edward Kelley, brother of Johnny Kelley, the marathoner, will show moving pictures of the Olympics, marathons, news reels of world events, and of trips made by the Kelleys. Some of the films will be in color. There will be a good comedian present.

Senator Richardson, of this district, will give a short talk on "Taxation," the one thing uppermost in the minds of the home-owner today.

There will be a fund demonstration by Sue Stanton Nevins sponsored by the General Baking Co., makers of Bond Bread; and to top off the evening, there will be a buffet luncheon.

There is no admission or charge of any kind and all members, wives, friends and guests are cordially invited.

COMMUNITY CLASSES TO BEGIN ON MONDAY NIGHT

The courses are available because of the generosity of those who give of their time to serve as instructors or to care for administrative details, and the co-operation of the School Committee in granting the use of the building.

Officials Reveal Most Urgent Needs

Completion Of Senior High School Auditorium, Solution Of Rubbish Disposal Problem And Construction Of More Streets Necessary — Town Department Heads Address Chamber Of Commerce — Four Plots Of Land Purchased Within Appropriation For Park Purposes, Audience Learns

Three major problems will soon have to be faced by the Town it was revealed by department heads at the Town Affairs Night of the Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday evening. They are:

1.—The completion of the senior high school auditorium which is inadequate, in its present unfinished state, for assemblies.

2.—Solution of the rubbish disposal problem with the hint that a rubbish disposal plant may have to be built.

3.—The construction of at least $100,000 worth of new streets.

That these problems exist were revealed by Clement J. Beaudet, chairman of the school committee; Loren W. Marsh of the public works board and Ernest W. Davis of the board of selectmen, respectively, who were among the several town officials to present in a most interesting way the duties of their departments and the problems which must be faced by the town in the future.

On the brighter side of the picture, was the statement of Mr. Davis that the present tax rate should be about the highest that Arlington will have for years and that there is a possible chance of reduction of the present rate this year. Also, the statement of Dr. Atwood of the board of health to the effect that the number of communicable diseases among children now is the lowest he has seen in his twenty-five years on the board there being but one case in Arlington at present.

Surprisingly enough, the general public showed little interest in the affairs of the town by failing to take advantage of the Chamber of Commerce's invitation to attend the affair. Comparatively few people occupied the Town Hall balconies which were thrown open to the public following the dinner which was attended by a large number of Chamber of Commerce members and guests. A. William Platine presided and a concert was presented by the senior high school orchestra under the direction of Haasler Einzig and Augustus Mazzotta during the dinner. Several town officials and department heads were seated at the head table.

20,618 Voters Here
Immediately following the dinner, Mr. Platine introduced Mrs. Harold B. Wood who spoke in the interest of the Community Chest appeal. The meeting was then turned over to Roger Homer who introduced the various town officials. The first of this group to speak was Earl A. Ryder, Town Clerk, who compared the town 100 years ago with today. In 1838, Arlington had a population of 1300; (Continued on Page Four)

Open Warrants For Meetings Health Agent To Be Honored

Warrants for three town meetings were opened by the board of selectmen at its meeting this week. The first warrant opened is for the special town meeting to be held in Robbins town hall Monday evening, January 24. This warrant will be closed next Monday, January 19 at 7 p.m. The purpose of this meeting is primarily to appropriate money for snow removal and for continuation of WPA work projects.

The other warrants opened were for the annual town meeting on March 7 and 15 as well as the special town meeting on March 15. These warrants will be closed January 31, at 8 p.m.

The Board of Health is sponsoring an informal dinner to William H. Bradley, Agent of the Board who retires on January 18, as a result of the Retirement Act, as accepted by the Town, March, 1937.

The dinner will be held in the Robbins Town Hall, Wednesday, January 12, at 6 p.m.

Friends of Mr. Bradley, who are interested in attending this dinner, are requested to get in touch with either members of the Board or its staff. It will be necessary to signify intention to attend as soon as possible.

Watchnight Service At Heights Well Attended

The popularity of the Old-time Watchnight service was demonstrated on New Year's Eve in the Arlington Heights Baptist Church, where an exceptionally large group of people gathered for the evening's program. Following the regular Bible study conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Walter Bridge, the group enjoyed a social hour of games, contests, etc., conducted by the Social Chairman of the Senior C. E. Society, Miss Doris Banks. Following the refreshments served by Mrs. G. Brine's committee, the church gathered for its Annual Candlelight Communion service.

The hand of Christian fellowship was extended to the following new members: Mrs. Charles McLeman, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Perkins, Mr. Thomas Travers, Mrs. Russell Fountain, Mrs. Everett L. Reed and Everett L. Reed, Jr. As the New Year was ushered in, a human chain was formed around the entire church as they sang together, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

New Free Service By Local Welfare Council

The Welfare Council offers a free service to all organizations and groups in Arlington planning winter activities. It is entitled "Activity Date Duplication Avoidance."

This is the way it works: Merely call Arlington 6206. The Arlington Welfare Council office phone. State your organization, and your plans for an activity such as a fair, guest night, play, social, dance, etc. the day and date you hope to hold the affair, and ask if the Council has listed any other function for that particular date. If not, request that it be listed for that time. If some other major activity is scheduled for your date, and you think it might conflict with yours, thereby lessening the attendance, you can plan another evening or afternoon for your activity.

It works both ways. Should there be two plays, guest nights, or other functions at which the general public are expected to patronize, the attendance will be split, and neither affair will gate the attendance needed to make it a success. Start the New Year right for your organization. Request your activities chairman to check their dates first with the Welfare Council by calling ARL. 6206. This is a free community service.

Holy Name Society Holds Services Here

St. Agnes Church was filled to capacity last Sunday afternoon when men of the Holy Name Society from various parishes around Arlington attended special Holy Name feast services. The Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the exercises which opened with a special sermon to the men present.

The third of a series of six book reviews by Alice Dixon Bond will be given in St. John's parish hall next Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. Bond will review the life of Madame Currie, written by her daughter.

Community Chest Quarters Opened

Activity prefacing the Community Chest Appeal, which actually opens in little more than a week (January 17 to 26) has been apparent for some time. Most Arlington people have heard about it from the members of the speakers' bureau and read about it in the local papers. But now there are visible evidences of it right in the Center.

The Community Chest Headquarters, 468 Massachusetts avenue, the speaker's side of the ave just below the railroad crossing, were formally opened Monday and have already been attractively decorated with displays contributed by the various organizations which are members of the chest. Instruction meetings for the workers in the various divisions of the town have already begun and will continue next week, there being a different meeting every night.

Anyone who still has a question about the Community Chest, about its purposes or about the organizations included in membership, will find answers at headquarters in the form of literature and many willing informants. Sunday afternoon the members of the speaker's bureau of which Mrs. Harold R. Wood is chairman held a conference for reports. Each speaker told of the reactions he had met and the questions fired at him and told how he had answered those questions. The bureau then selected the best answers to be used in the future. At the conference it was also announced that a sound truck had been obtained to be active along the entire length of Massachusetts ave from the Brook to the Heights from twelve noon until nine in the evening, Saturday, January 15, two days before the drive actually opens. Members of the bureau in charge of James M. Carmody, Jr., will do the broadcasting.

St. James' Curate Now In Somerville Parish

The Kensington Park Study Club will meet at 2 o'clock, Tuesday, January 11 at the home of Mrs. H. S. Teale, 11 Jason street. Mrs. L. M. Evans will preside. Mrs. J. O. Matthews will read a paper on Nobel, Dynamite and Peace.

K. of C. To Have Noted Speaker January 13th

Agent Dalley gave a very interesting talk on the work of the Order in general and stressed the Catholic Action Movement which has accomplished so much in its fight against Communism and all "isms."

Following the meeting the committee in charge of the Past Grand Knights' and Old Timers' Night to be held on January 13, in Old Fellows Hall met and completed arrangements for the affair. The guest speaker will be Assistant United States District Attorney Henry M. Leen who has taken as his subject "Gambling Rackets."

"Did you have a good time, Gilbert?" asked his dear old aunt.

"No," was the golfer's reply. The seventh tee was sloppy and all the greens were in a terrible state."

The old lady shuddered. "You mustn't lunch there any more, Gilbert. You know how easily you get indigestion."

Noted Conductor To Direct Boys Choir Here This Evening

When the Vienna Mozart Boys Choir appears at the Junior High School East this evening under the auspices of the Arlington High School Girls' glee club, it will be under the direction of a most eminent conductor, Dr. George Gruber.

Born in Vienna, Dr. Gruber studied at the State Academy of Music and later became director of the choir of the old Haydn Basilica. From 1930 to 1937 he was conductor of the Vienna Boys Choir. He has conducted the Vienna Male Choir of five hundred voices. In 1907 he became director of the group which will appear here tonight. He has also conducted a Bach-Mozart Festival in Buenos Aires and directed concerts in other South American cities.

Tonight's program will include the opera "Tales From The Vienna Woods" in costume.

Harry B. Elliott Is Townsend Speaker

A very Happy New Year's surprise awaited the members of Arlington Townsend Club last Tuesday evening when Harry B. Elliott, National Representative was presented as the guest speaker. In his intimate and interesting outline of work among the nearly 2000 clubs throughout this district, which includes New York and the six New England States, he finds increasing interest and greater desire to know and understand the principle of the Townsend Plan and its chief object, Recovery, especially among the business men, many of whom are striving to retain their holdings.

He also outlined his series of mass meetings, which will eventually take place in about every city and town in this country, with speakers of national prominence and ability, coming from various parts of the country. His whole address was very encouraging and received hearty applause.

The Anniversary Dinner tickets were readily placed, for the celebration of the third year of the club's existence, which will be held in American Legion Hall, January 18, at 6:30 p. m. For reservations call ARL 1659 W. or ARL 6591 J. before January 15. A fine program is being arranged with interesting speakers and special features.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

"Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, January 9.

The Golden Text is: "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?" (1 Corinthians 10:16)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "If ye love me, keep my commandments. . . . He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him" (John 14:15, 21).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To keep the commandments of our Master and follow his example, is our proper debt to him and the only worthy evidence of our gratitude for all that he has done (p. 4).

MEMBER OF MASSACHUSETTS PRESS ASSOCIATION

HORATIO A. PHINNEY

On Tuesday of this week the town of Arlington lost one of its most esteemed and well-known citizens in the death of Horatio A. Phinney of 83 Gray Street.

For many years Mr. Phinney had been prominent in the affairs of Arlington in its political, business, social and civic life.

Mr. Phinney had been most generous with his time and money in the support of Arlington institutions for the betterment of this community. During late years he had devoted most of his attention locally to the Symmes Hospital, of which he was the president since its organization, and the Arlington Cooperative Bank, where he also served as president of its Board of Directors for the past twenty years.

Those who knew Mr. Phinney recognized in him a man of wide experience and great capacity in the field of business and social service.

His success as a business man, together with his experience in political and civic affairs generally, gave him a broad outlook in dealing with his fellow townspeople and made his services an invaluable asset in determining policies beneficial to those served by the institutions with which he was associated for so many years.

In the passing of Mr. Phinney, Arlington loses a man who has shown by his life of service a comprehension of today's needs excelled by few men.

AMERICA IS CHOOSING

The news from Washington is filled these days with reports of Congress resisting new demands for burdens upon business and seeking instead the means for changing the tax laws and otherwise encouraging private enterprise to go ahead with expansions of plans and employment.

If there is one fact that stands out above all else in the Capitol it is that Congressmen and Senators have definitely put away the "rubber stamp" and decided to do more than vote "yes." They are not only reviewing carefully legislation laid before them but are showing signs of initiating their own bills such as the repeal of the surplus profits tax which penalizes expansion of industry out of which employment comes.

Often it is not what happens in Washington that is significant but what caused the action. And in this instance there is general agreement that the cause is traceable to the grass roots of America; to the small towns from where so many members of Congress come back to the backbone of the Nation.

While they were home the legislators obviously heard that the people were beginning to look about them and wonder "what's going on here." Since they returned for the present session, there has been a surprising flow of mail into the Capitol urging a return to sound principles, a decrease in spending and aid rather than harassment of business.

The change in Congressional sentiment is measurable by what the mailman brings. If this flow of mail grows as it did in the Supreme Court fight, Congress will respond.

Today more than in years Senators and Congressmen are looking to their constituents for an expression of their will. The people in turn, are looking to Congress for direct action to end the slump by aiding employment.

The NEWS
OBSERVES

Thirty-five percent of the entire population of Massachusetts were being supported partly or wholly by public funds in 1936, according to a report released this week. A rather tough load for the other 65 percent.

The United States has 7,322,912 citizens able to work and seeking work, according to the first report on the recently conducted census taken the country-over.

Sweeping over New England, the heaviest snowstorm in two years covered Arlington under a seven-inch blanket of snow on New Year's Day. Sleet and rain which followed added to the difficulty of clearing the snow and made auto driving still more dangerous. The storm took ten lives in New England.

The popular Gilbert & Sullivan Opera Series, which was discontinued a short time ago, will resume over WAAAB and The Colonial Network tonight, from 9 to 9:30 with a special presentation of "Patience." On January 14 and 21, "Pinafore" will be heard in two parts. The series originates through the facilities of Mutual's Cincinnati affiliate WLW.

It happened this week. A citizen "bawled" out a town employee because a certain unaccepted street was posted against coasting. The error was corrected since the town cannot post a private street. Within a few hours, the same party complained to the board of public works because the private way was not cleared of snow. The citizen was informed that "accepted streets" came first.

More and more the people of Massachusetts are coming to recognize their individual responsibility towards their government. For 1938 our principal concern is that this general acceptance of responsibility be increased; that our public officials recognize its existence and give sympathetic ear to those who without partisanship or other selfish motive desire to make Massachusetts a prosperous and profitable State in which to live.

Next Monday, radio station WORL will broadcast exclusively the speech of Major Smedley D.
Butler at one o'clock from the ballroom of the Hotel Statler in Boston. The General's speech will be the high point of the Second Annual Radio Conference of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs, under the division chairmanship of Mrs. Benjamin H. Kraus. The subject of General Butler's speech will be "War is a Racket."

John P. Zelenak, Jr.'s tall story won him the crown of world champion liar this week when officials of the Burlington Lions Club announced their decision.
Zelenak's entry was: "My wife is so lazy she feeds the chickens popcorn so that when she fries the eggs they turn over by themselves." Zelenak may be crowned a second time any day now.

Varia Study Club's
Meeting Next Monday

The Varia Study club will meet Monday evening, at 8:15 p. m. at the home of Miss Mildred Fitch, 100 Appleton st.

Miss Viola Engler of Simmons College will be the guest speaker.
Miss Engler has chosen for her subject, "From North of the Arctic Circle to South of the Equator." She has traveled extensively and has earned a reputation as a forceful and interesting speaker. Her lecture is anticipated with relish by the members.

Leone Richardson, chairman of the hospital committee, will be assisted by the hostesses and by Miss Beatrice Gookin in serving refreshments after the lecture.

FEATURED AT PET SHOW

A kitten of an absolutely new color has been entered for the Boston Cat Club Show in aid of the Angell Memorial Hospital to be held in Horticultural Hall on January 13 and 14. Pedigreed mice are being entered from New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts and among these will be seen the Dutch mouse, that recently won the blue ribbon at the New York Cat and Mouse Show. This entry being owned by Mrs. Mabel Lafayette of Arlington Heights.

C. of C. Meeting

today it has close to 40,000. Its valuation then was three million dollars as compared with sixty million today. Registered at his office today are the names of 20,618 voters, he added.

Outlining the duties of the Town Clerk and his assistants, Mr. Ryder dictated the recording of births, marriages, deaths, mortgages, town meetings, checking voting lists and serving as information bureau generally, for some who "seek consolation and inspiration."

A highlight of the brief talk by Nils B. Anderson, park commissioner, was his announcement of the purchase of four of the five plots of land to be used as playgrounds, within the appropriation voted at last year's town meeting. The sites purchased, he said, include the Thorndike street land, the Teel street property, the Purcell property and the lot on Florence avenue. The largest and most slightly in the Turkey Hill section, could not be purchased within the amount set by the town meeting and therefore it was decided to let this parcel go, Mr. Anderson stated.

Indicating the park commissioners' intention to make the most of the property purchased he revealed a five-year plan during which the board plans to equip and fence in the new sites. He also outlined improvements made on other playgrounds and paid glowing tribute to the park superintendent for maintaining the town's twenty-two playgrounds within a budget of $7,000 a year. Because of hoodlums who have destroyed every building ever built at the Heights Reservoir, the bathing facilities at this beach are still an unsolved problem, he said. Mr. Anderson suggested that a building be provided to store the park department's equipment.

18,000 Using Library

In her talk, Mrs. Lucinda Spof-ford, head librarian paid tribute to Arlington families whose generosity has contributed so much to Arlington's public library system and spoke eagerly of the opening of the new branch library at Arlington Heights before this month is over.

She said there are now 18,000 people having library cards, showing the educational work carried out by this town department. In addition, the library has sent out 20,000 books to local schools for class use during the past year.
Books in eight different foreign languages were borrowed from the State library for local use during 1937. In the past year 1,795 new borrowers took out cards in Arlington. Mrs. Spofford announced.
She also spoke of the many questions answered daily by librarians.

Explains Board's Work

Fred Low, the next speaker explained the duties of the Board of Appeals, a board appointed by the selectmen to hear appeals seeking changes of building code. The board has heard thirty-one appeals since 1929, he said. It has the power to recommend changes in the building code where desirable.

Health Work Here

Dr. Atwood explained the work of the board of health in protecting health. He said its task was mostly preventative and told of the 7,000 injections given children against diphtheria since 1923. That these clinics are valuable was proved by the fact that last year only one case of this sickness was reported locally. Dr. Atwood also spoke of the anti-rabies clinic conducted here.

Praises Superintendent

In his talk, Chairman Beaudet of the School board explained that illness forced the new superintendent of schools Joseph S. Keating to be away from the meeting. Mr.
Beaudet was loud in his praise of Mr. Keating as "a real supervising superintendent." He credited the latter with several consolidations and recommendations which have curtailed expenses. Referring to economy, Mr. Beaudet warned that the school committee has had to go too far in cutting expenses for books and supplies which are now at a low point. He said a general storehouse had recently been established so that all supplies can now be checked.

He spoke highly of the maintenance crew. Referring to the imperative need of finishing the high school auditorium he said it was unsuitable for assemblies and could not be heated to above 45 degrees in winter. Furthermore without a balcony, the new hall cannot take care of the 1700 senior high school students, he added.
Speaking of athletics, he said that under the present system of management a deficit of $4,000 had been wiped out and there was $1,300 on hand.

much improved during the past six or eight months, he said.
Planning-Conscious

S. P. Basmajian, of the planning board, urged the town to be more planning conscious. He said the duties of his board were to see that zoning laws were enforced and that what good has been done in planning is not destroyed. He pointed to the wrong planning of years ago with the result that a recent study by M. T. T. of Arlington's planning showed up so many wrongs which would cost so much to correct that the planning board did not dare make it public. He urged setting a limit in sizes of house lots in undeveloped areas.

Snow and Ice Problem

At present the problem of snow and ice removal is uppermost in the minds of the public works board.
Loren W. Marsh said. Fifty-five miles of accepted ways had to be cleared of snow following the last storm and complaints have been numerous, Mr. Marsh admitted, although he added that the board was only too willing to take care of complaints if these are reasonable.
The sanitary division's problems have reached the limit he said, as he pointed out that there is only 1000 square feet of land left on which the town can dump rubbish.
This will last only three or four months, he added. He predicted an early report from the special committee on rubbish disposal regarding this problem which may be solved by the construction of a rubbish disposal plant.

Davis Optimistic

The last speaker, Selectman Davis was most optimistic regarding the town's future and in opening his talk pointed to the town as being in good shape financially.
"To be sure," he said, "we have a high tax rate but we also have high expenditures over which we have little control. Our bonded indebtedness is the lowest of any town or city of this size in Massachusetts. Our tax rate is only five dollars more than in 1924. This is remarkable considering the necessary welfare expenditures which have risen year by year and assessments against the town over which we have no control."

Speaking of welfare, Mr. Davis said he firmly believed this was administered as fairly to recipient and the town as could be found anywhere. Those who can work out their welfare aid do so, he said, and chiselers are few. Welfare expenditures total $253,000 and there is no sign of immediate decrease, he added. Two years ago there were 900 on WPA here while today there are but 400. With all its faults and inconveniences, Federal aid has been a great help to Arlington. Mr. Davis admitted as he stated that the Federal government has spent $1,767,000 in Arlington since 1933 which was matched with $446,000 paid by the town. "I believe Arlington has had more than a fair return for what it has spent," he said.

Possible Tax Cut

State assessments are a blow to the town, he said. Mr. Davis predicted that with the $1,007,000 in new buildings built in Arlington last year there is a possibility of a decrease in the tax rate this year.
Last year, $1.25 of the tax rate went toward the purchase of a new library, a new fire ladder truck, and four new parks, which will not have to be bought this year.
Referring to the need of finishing as many streets as possible, Mr. Davis urged the spending of $100,000 for new streets this year and suggested that the town build these partly on borrowed money.
Since 65 percent of the cost of new streets comes back from abutters at 6 percent interest, Mr. Davis suggested that this amount could be borrowed by the town at a much lower rate of interest so that the town would not lose any money by borrowing. In this way the town might appropriate but $35,000 outright for new streets this year.

In conclusion, Mr. Davis said:
"We reached the peak of extravagance in 1930. We have paid this off without curtailing services.
The present tax rate should not be any higher for years to come and this can be done by using business sense. Whatever happens let's not make cut-throats at the expense of our children."

Junior Woman's Club
Enjoys Hobby Show

A varied display of hobbies made an interesting exhibit at the Hobby Show of the Arlington Junior Woman's Club Monday evening, January 3. Collections and handiwork showed the Juniors had many and various hobbies.
Mrs. L. E. A. Smith, President of the Senior Woman's Club, and Past advisers and group leaders of the Arlington Junior Woman's Club were guests of the Juniors at this meeting.

The Barn Dance held last Wednesday evening at the Kelsie Ranch in Lexington was very successful with those attending in farmer and farmerette costume.
This is the first dance of this type attempted by the Arlington Junior Woman's Club, but its success may be the cause of their sponsoring similar informal get-togethers.

Juniors are requested to start thinking of and preparing their costumes for the Baby Party which is to be the feature of the Fifth Anniversary of the Arlington Junior Woman's Club in February.

pride, was familiar to many as one of the most attractive in the community.

The late Mr. Phinney had served as president of the Symmes Hospital since its organization and opening twenty-six years ago. Toward its maintenance Mr. Phinney contributed most generously. He was also keenly interested in the affairs of the Arlington Co-operative Bank as president of its board of directors for the last twenty years. Shortly before his illness, business colleagues and the board of directors of the bank had tendered him a testimonial dinner.

Mr. Phinney was president and director of the Cross Paper Feeder company of Boston and a director of the Dorchester Mutual Fire Insurance company.

Besides his wife, Mrs. George-anna Frost Phinney, Mr. Phinney leaves a brother, Charles A. Phinney of Arlington Heights. Mrs.
Phinney, who has also been confined to the Symmes Hospital because of illness, is expected to return home within a few days.

Curry School Of Dance Pupils Enjoy Parties

New Year's parties held December thirty-first and New Year's day by the Curry School of Dancing were enjoyed by some three hundred young people. Odd Fellows Hall in its holiday dress of evergreen, tinsel, and ropes of laurel was a fitting background for the lovely party frocks worn by the young ladies. The beginners Junior High class held Friday afternoon was graced by young people wearing their first long dress, an occasion in itself, and they were lovely to watch. They were received by Mrs. Roy Connor, Mrs. Robert Cook and Mrs.
W. F. DeMaris in dressy afternoon gowns, the ushers being Masters Hugh Clouke, Robert Cook, Sherman Hall, Arthur Hill, Raymond Merrill, Donald Perry, Richard Stevenson and Littleton Strong.

The hostesses assisted Mrs. Curry in dispensing many favors, the noise-makers proving most popular although when a large colored bag suspended from the ceiling dropped snow-balls on the dancers there was more "informality." The Junior High evening party was held New Year's Eve from eight to ten-thirty and was, if possible, a lovelier gathering. Richard Beaumont, Edison Chick, Robert Gleason, Ralph Neas, Paul Power, Terry Shuman, Allen Strong and Walter Wilcox introduced the young people to the matrons, Mrs.
T. W. Scott, Mrs. Walter Sargent and Mrs. Frank Mahoney. This group of pupils are naturally more proficient dancers and executed the many steps taught in a very able manner. Perhaps the "shag" proved most fun and certainly made the floor sway.

New Year's Day at three-thirty the smaller children were received by Mrs. Peter J. Robinson and Mrs.
Jere H. Sullivan, and Little Crawford Combs and Peter Robinson with William Marshall made the proper introductions with a grouping air. Each favor was an added joy and Russell Curry's tap classes joined them when the ice-cream and cake was served.

That evening, in spite of the storm, a large gathering of the High School class was on hand, being received by Mrs. Chester T.
Cook and Mrs. Cedric Lewis in evening gowns. Mrs. Curry was assisted in her duties by Messrs.
Robert Burton, John Breenahan, Robert Cave, Robert Cook, Arthur Russell, Charles Poole, Gardner Sloan and Robert Stevens. Elimination dances were held in all classes and eight couples received prizes.
Mrs. H. H. Stinson and Mrs. Louise Bacon Wood played ably for all the parties. The pupils are looking forward to their next lesson held on the 14th and 15th.

Exhibition By Local Artists

By LESTER MCINNIS

Once again Arlington Artists exhibit their paintings at the Robins Library under the auspices of the Art Committee of the Arlington Woman's Club. Mr. Cyrus Dallas has two of his models, "Paul Revere" and "Peace Signal," on exhibition which attract attention for the masterful way they are executed. A very modern technique is used by Mr. Clayton in his "Boston Art Club," this being a most decorative and well thought out painting.

Harold Cue poses a technique of his own in illustrating, A. J. Philpot has a fine water color of "Revere Beach" back in 1920. "Rolling Surf" by Charles F. L. Morton is a pleasing picture with its foaming surf and life-like rocks. The fine transparent colors in the breakers are treated with extreme care. Stanley Ryan has a masterpiece in his "Bungos, Spain," there are few like this. Barbara Sears' "Still Life" and "Snow Scene" are superb, showing the experience she has had in painting fine pictures. The composition of this still life makes an extremely interesting and pleasing picture. Harold Knight has two fine pencil sketches called "Rockport" and "Fireplace," Amy showing how well he can handle pictures of this type and how much the exhibition was arranged by Mrs. E. Stickney.

THE UNIVERSITY

Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell in their first screen appearance since their joint triumph in "Night Must Fall" are the stars of "Live, Love and Learn," coming to the University Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, with Robert Benchley and Helen Vinson topping an outstanding supporting cast.

"First Lady," a film version of the Broadway stage hit of the same name, is the associate feature. Kay Francis is the star of this comedy of society-and-politics at the national capital.

On Wednesday, Review Day, the program includes "A Tale of Two Cities" starring Ronald Colman and Walter Kelly in "The Virginia Judge."

All the resources of the United States Navy were loaned, it is said, for the production of a thrilling melodrama called "Submarine D-1," which opens Thursday and is announced as the most stirring and authentic film ever made with a "tin fish"—as the gobs irreverently term an undersea boat—as its subject.

Matching wits on a transatlantic ship for a world-famous diamond, a beautiful young girl, fond of gems, and a gaily romantic adventurer, fond of danger, keep just one step ahead of the law but find they can't escape from their hearts in "Dangerously Yours," the companion picture featuring Phyllis Brooks.

METROPOLITAN THEATRE

Walter Winchell and Ben Bernie, those famous feudists who put puns into their punches, are starred with the saucy and vivacious French star, Simone Simon in "Love and Hisses," Twentieth Century Fox's new musical scheduled to open on Thursday, January 6, at the Metropolitan Theatre. On the stage is "Salute to 1938," an original musical comedy revue featuring Ella Logan, captivating songstress of stage, screen and radio fame, with Texas Jim Lewis and His Cowboys, and a big cast of talented artists.

STATE AND ORPHEUM

"Rosalie," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's mightiest musical production co-starring Nelson Eddy and Eleanor Powell is chalking up new records at both Loew's State and Orpheum theatres where it is being held over for a second sensational week.

Teaming Nelson Eddy and Eleanor Powell for the first time, the picture is reported to be the most lavish production attempted in Hollywood. The locale of the story varies between Army-Navy football game, West Point, a transatlantic airplane, and the colorful mythical kingdom of "Romanza."

Included on the same program are two important short subjects, one a Pete Smith specialty entitled "Romance of Radium," and another Metro short called "The Boss Didn't Say Good Morning."

GREENWOOD HIT IN "LEANING ON LETTY"

Charlotte Greenwood's engagement at the Wilbur theatre in Boston which started off in a blaze of glory at the Christmas night opening of "Leaning on Letty," the thrill comedy in which she has been touring this season has been extended according to announcement of Martin Brookes, producer of the play.

"Leaning on Letty" is a happy combination of drama and comedy contrived by Wilbur Daniel Steele and Norma Mitchell, one in which the angular star is presented in the guise of an acidulous spinster who operates a tourists' accommodated home on the Boston Post Road and has a little difficulty with her guests.

Nothing ever happens in the home of Letty Madison, the sole excitement having to do with the frantic efforts of Miss Madison's shiftless brother-in-law to get his home-made radio into working order. And then one evening guests arrive to take all available rooms—guests that prove to be villains of deepest dye.

How Letty Madison rearranges her house in a premature spring-cleaning is told with tumultuous excitement and hilarious gaiety. The role is tailor made to the near-tremendous of the launty comedienne and she is supported by a superb cast of players including Russell Fillmore, Isabel Withers, Romaine Callender, Wendy Arkin, Boyd Irwin and others of stage and screen prominence.

At the conclusion of the play proper, Miss Greenwood who has been in London for the last five years starting at Drury Lane's Theatre Royal, does a musical postscript in which she introduces a budget of the songs and dances that won her fame here and abroad. The innovation is one of the bright spots in this year's theatrical season.

In Boston Miss Greenwood planned to remain for two weeks but the enthusiasm of critics and public has forced her to continue for a limited period during which popular priced matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday, performances starting at 2:30. The evening performances start at 8:30 with the curtain down in time for patrons to catch 11 p. m. trains home.

HUB THEATRE

Two important first run pictures will make up the new program opening today at the Hub theatre.

The first of these is "Lady Behave," a Republic picture and the companion feature is "Non Stop New York," a Gaumont British picture.

"Lady Behave," features Sally Eilers, Neil Hamilton and Joseph Schildkraut and deals with a lady's adventures in extricating her madcap sister from a marriage tangle.

TREMONT THEATRE

The Tremont Theatre, Home of Proven Pictures, located in the heart of downtown Boston, opposite the Boston Common, presents for the coming week:

Tells Kiwanians Benefits To Be Derived From The Townsend Pension Plan

Addressing the Arlington Kiwanis club at its last week's meeting in Wyman's tavern, Harry B. Elliot, of Chicago said that the Townsend Plan was one of the greatest economic subjects before the American people today. Many, however, have the mistaken idea that it is something wild, the speaker added.

He said in part: "Business recovery is the cry of the day; the mere fact that we have a recession is because there is a lack of buying power in the hands of the people. Business has not the sufficient demand for the product it carries. An unemployment situation develops. Six to seven millions are now a liability on society. "Social security starts from the day we are born and lasts until the day we leave this earth. It means that we shall have sufficient to meet the needs that we face from day to day. Through the annuities distributed to the people, under the Townsend Plan, money will be spent more freely on necessities and recovery will be established. We have today about fifteen forms of pension systems which are paid for by the public. The idea of the Townsend Plan is to have one pension system to which all are entitled because all are paying into it." The speaker predicted that "the next ten months would be the worst we have seen in all of our depressions according to some statisticians." The unemployed are not being absorbed but are being added to our relief program which becomes an added tax on our people. By production only do we make dollars. Therefore, we must establish that normal business turnover if we are to have business recovery. "The maximum under the Townsend Plan is $200 a month but this amount may be reduced according to one's actual need."

Candles

The beautifully formed candles which are so much admired today, are used mostly in a decorative way, had a lowly beginning. Invention, born of necessity, gave the early "rush lights." Then came the "tallow dips" which kept many a household busy. In the 13th century Paris had the first candlemakers Guild. These candlemakers, experts in their craft, went from house to house and made candles to suit each individual family.

The ordinary modern candles are made of paraffin, or of paraffin and stearine, the latter being used exclusively for candles in warmer climates. Beeswax is still used and the making of decorative candles has reached the art of a rare Italian art.

There's fashion news in these new headlines of 1938. Hair softly upswept to the crown where it breaks out in a riot of curls... Watteau-inspired. Or a daring coiffure that is purely fantasy for after-dark... with elaborate curls and ornaments. With a successful permanent as foundation, our skilled hair stylist can achieve a new and practical design for YOU.

Arlington Girl Wins Costume Ball Prize

First prize was won by Miss Betty Boljan of 88 Broadway, at a masquerade ball given by the Armenian church choir of Watertown, which Deran Dindjan supervises. Betty, charmingly dressed as a Spanish Senorita, was chosen, as having the prettiest and most unique costume of all. Her dress, the color of an American Beauty Rose, was covered by a very fine black lace. A flowing mantilla, also of black lace was her headpiece. The prize was a beautiful Indian hand carved tray.

PLANNING! (By George Ryan in the Boston Herald)

The future generations ought to have a perfect clench. In view of all the things we've bought. Their happiness to clench. They'll never have to worry much for homes with garden plots.

For scenic roads and dams and such. Or recreation spots. For future generations we have planned and planned and planned. Unhampered by frugality. Or thoughts of cash in hand. And pleasant schemes we've gambled through. As happy as a pup. So all they'll ever have to do is later settle up. We've done an awful lot on tick. It's really quite surprising how blithely we have turned the trick. Without economizing. Yes, generations which succeed. Should find this life a honey. There's nothing much they're going to need. Except a lot of money.

Police officer Ferdinand Lucarelli, who was recently injured in an accident on the Concord turnpike, has recovered sufficiently to resume his duties in the police department.
